21. [] I mentioned to Guy McConnell, Senate Appropriations Committee staff, that the paper on our assessment of Soviet weapons being used in the Middle East war and an unclassified statement on the functions and responsibilities of the Agency were now being finalized and I should have them for him early next week.

22. [] Toni Sidley, in the office of William Timmons in the White House, called and said Timmons wanted her to ask us to report any inquiries we might receive concerning Vice President designate Gerald Ford. She said if we did get any inquiries, they wanted to know who made the inquiry and what they wanted to know. The DCI, Executive Secretary, and Mr. Thuermer were alerted to this call.
